NEWS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yavapai County School Superintendent Tim Carter originally posted an announcement seeking candidates for an appointment to the Clarkdale-Jerome Governing Board on September 17th. Due to only having one candidate to interview, he will extend the application period where candidates can be considered until Monday, November 5th. All candidates will remain in the pool and are eligible for appointment.

The original opening was created by the resignation of Michael Gordon, who has relocated out of the school district. We appreciate Mr. Gordon's service to the district and wish him well. Mr. Gordon's term was scheduled to end on December 31, 2020. The resignation was effective September 17, 2018.

In consultation with the members of the Governing Board and the District Administration, Mr. Carter determined that it would be in the best interest of the district, if a larger pool of candidates were available for consideration.
