Agenda and Notes (in Red)

1) Welcome

Present: LaMonica Claw, Beth Bustya, Jennifer Shilling, Amanda Honwyte, Lisa Sandoval, and Steve Doerksen.

2) Back to School Update

- Read Across America Day was on March 2, 2021.
- Lisa has changed her duties to working primarily with Native American students via Title VI funds.
- Ms. Karn is planning a mobile career fair for May 14th. If you know of any business people who would like to participate, please see Ms. Karn.
- The school will be collaborating with the Cottonwood library regarding books with Native American representation. Ms. Sandoval provided contact information for Ms. Karn to work with.

3) Tutoring Update

- Tutoring has started back up on Mondays and Wednesdays from 2:30-3:15. After spring break, the school can probably have after-school tutoring on Mondays - Thursdays, including transportation.

4) AzM2 Update

- Mr. Doerksen emailed to committee members the AzM2 testing schedule which will occur in April.

5) Principal Search Update

- There are four completed applications at this time and the deadline for submission is March 11, 2021. We are pleased that Ms. Sandoval will be on the search committee.

6) Native American Club Update - Lisa Sandoval

- The club will be going strong again since we are physically back to school. The students expressed keen interest in attending the Odysea Aquarium in Phoenix as well as the butterfly exhibit.

7) Title VI Update

- The business office will submit the first part of the Title VI grant by March 11, 2021. After that, we will be notified as to the amount of the grant. Then we will begin working on next year's Title VI program.

8) Questions or Other Items for Discussion?

- The meeting adjourned at 4:30.
