

Summary Description of Digital Resources Teacher

- Develop career literacy skills
- Study contemporary world events using a variety of online resources.
- Use technology to develop creativity and innovation using a variety of processes and products.
- Use digital tools to communicate a variety of ideas, products and projects and to share findings and publish in a variety of ways.
- Use a variety of technological environments to communicate with others both locally and globally and to contribute to projects and team products.
- Carry out effective information searches and determine which are reliable sources that will provide necessary information for research.
- Evaluate qualities of a website, primary and secondary sources, fact vs. opinion, and bias; manage this information using a variety of digital resources and multiple perspectives to complete a project or research assignment.
- Understand and apply copyright laws and citing sources appropriately.
- Encourage digital citizenship by demonstrating strategies to deal with cyber bullying, articulating safe use of digital tools and analyzing the impact and evaluate the motives of technological tools on society.
- Utilize technology systems and applications effectively for a wide variety of products such as Google Docs, Prezi, PowToon's, PowerPoint, spreadsheets, data entry programs, word processing, etc.
- Compare and contrast a literary work to its multimedia version and create a visual response utilizing a variety of components that identify a variety of connections.