- Successful Intergenerational Field Trip to the Heard Museum.
- Next Monday will be the last meeting/party for the New Club Chairperson/ Vice chair/ Secretary.
- All future planning's are in the works for next year in collaboration with NAEC family members. Ideas on future field trips are being planned by the Native American students.
- Beth Scott did notice all the student's excitement for the club meetings and said this year was the best Native American Club! And we all agree! Good Job Monique!
- Glory added in to see about the NAEC contributing to the Voting Party.

4. Superintendent Update

- Chairperson LaMonica Claw was 1 out of 10 on the community review panel who interviewed the 2 superintendent applicants on the morning of May 13, 2023. A majority of the panel seemed to favor Dr. Schumacher as the better of the two applicants. Schumacher is very knowledgeable in the full operations of the school and is also willing to seek funding to help with student development and activities. At one of our first meetings next year, the NAEC will invite Mr. Schumacher so we can all begin the year on the same page.

5. NAEC Bylaws
